Information on the Processing of Personal Data of the Clients of Studio Notarile Busani & Partners

The Notary is a public official who institutionally has a role of guarantee and impartiality; he has the task of giving public faith to the acts between private individuals and to the information contained in them, so that anyone can rely on them. At the same time, he ensures the control of legality of the acts and a qualified legal assistance, aimed at ensuring that the stipulated acts realize, as far as allowed, the result desired by the Clients. In order to carry out these activities, the Notary processes certain Personal Data concerning each of his or her Clients and any other parties related to the Clients, such as their professionals, brokers, etc. Depending on the nature of the assignment, the Notary may have to consult (or have a person in charge of the consultation consult) the Land Registry, the Real Estate Registry, the Business Registry, the Civil Status Registry, the Civil Registry and/or other similar Public Registries, obtaining the information necessary for the correct performance of the professional assignment entrusted to him/her. The Notary enters Personal Data in the aforesaid Public Registers.

In relation to the processing of Personal Data of the Client that the Notary performs in the context of his activity is made this information.

Personal Data Controller. The Data Controller is Studio Notarile Busani & Partners, with registered office in Milan, via S. Maria Fulcorina n. 2.

Purposes, legal basis and necessity of the processing of Personal Data. The purposes pursued by the Data Controller are: a) to provide an estimate for the professional activity; b) to execute the professional assignment. The legal basis for the processing of Personal Data for the purposes indicated is the fulfilment of a contractual or pre-contractual obligation and the related obligations imposed by law. For the processing of Special Data as per Article 9 GDPR, the specific consent of the Client is required. The provision of Personal Data of the Customer is always necessary for the pursuit of the purposes indicated by the Owner.

Processing methods. The Customer's Personal Data are processed by the Data Controller in both paper and electronic form. The Customer's Personal Data as well as any other information associated with them, directly or indirectly (e.g. images, etc.), are processed by applying security, technical and organizational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk, taking into account the state of the art and cost of implementation.

Recipients. The Personal Data collected by the Owner may be processed by the latter and/or by personnel specifically authorized and/or appointed by the Owner, as well as by internal and external managers, all formally appointed/authorized by the Owner. In addition, the Owner, in the execution of specific legal obligations (for example, anti-money laundering regulations) to which he is obliged, may have to communicate to certain public or private subjects, the Personal Data of the Client (Land Registry, Revenue Agency, Notary Archives, Register of Companies, other bodies or institutions provided for by law including the Ministry of Health in relation to the particular Data contained in the Advance Treatment Dispositions, in order to feed the National Data Bank for DAT).

Period of conservation of the Data. The Client's Personal Data, acquired for the above-mentioned purposes, are processed for as long as is necessary to carry out the professional service requested by the Client, for the relative legal obligations and until the termination of the professional assignment. Personal Data is stored in accordance with the law. At the end of this period, Personal Data that does not need to be stored by law is deleted in accordance with the law.

Transfer of Data to Third Countries. The Owner does not transfer the Customer's Personal Data to Third Countries. Should this be necessary, all due precautions and security measures are taken to protect the Data.

Rights of the interested parties. In relation to the processing described above, the Customer, at any time, may exercise the rights provided by the GDPR. In particular, it can:

- a) access their Personal Data, obtaining evidence of the purposes pursued by the Data Controller, the categories of Data involved, the recipients to whom the same may be communicated, the applicable storage period, the existence of automated decision-making processes, including profiling, significant information on the logic used, the importance and possible consequences for the data subject, where not already indicated in the text of this Information;
- b) obtain without delay the rectification of inaccurate Personal Data concerning the Customer;
- c) obtain, in the cases allowed by the law, the cancellation of the Data;
- d) obtain the limitation of the treatment or to oppose the same, when allowed according to the provisions of the law applicable to the specific case;
- e) request the portability of the Data provided to the Owner, that is to receive them in a structured format, of common use and readable by automatic device;
- f) request to transmit such Data to another Owner, if technically feasible;
- g) propose a complaint to the competent Authority.

As a general rule, please note that for the processing of Personal Data for which the legal basis is consent, this consent can always be revoked.

By signing this form, I, the undersigned, declare my consent to the processing of my Personal Data by Studio Notarile Busani & Partners.
